Monday 4th May 2020

Hello from Mrs Ajewole & Mrs Pesani

Thank you to everyone who has completed learning activities whether through the Google Classroom or on paper at home.

It was lovely to speak to so many of you and your families on the phone this week. If you missed our call or would like to hear from us again next week, please send us an email to: GHPSYear6@ghps.bracknell-forest.sch.uk

Friday is a Bank Holiday so we have included a World War 2 ration recipe to make carrot cookies if you fancied giving them a try!

Weekly Puzzle

This week's puzzle has been set by Mrs Ajewole. If you would like to set next week's puzzle please email us.

Can you join all nine dots with four straight lines, without taking your pencil off the paper? You cannot go over any line twice.

Reading Bingo

Have a look at the Reading Bingo challenge sheet. There are 30 activities in total so it's unlikely you'll be able to do them all this week but it would be a nice project to keep going.

We would be interested to hear which ones you attempted.
