

Weekly Update

Friday 6th December

Suggested Reading Lists

Over the next few days you should receive via your child, a copy of the suggested reading list for your child's year group. These have been compiled to give you some idea of the stories you can encourage your child to read at home. These will help to challenge them and create greater variety in their reading. These lists can also be found online in the Curriculum and Parent Information Guides sections of our website.

Carol Concert at St Michael's Church

You should have all received a letter home last week with details of our visit to St Michael's Church, Easthampstead for our traditional Carol Concert. It can also be viewed on our website at Parents>Parent Letters>Whole School Letters. Parents and carers are welcome to join us for the walk to the church or meet us there. We should be leaving school between 9.15am and 9.30am and the Carol Service will begin at 10.00am. Please speak to your child's class teacher with any questions.
