

What is happening in Nursery this week?

14th December 2020

Literacy

We are continuing to read the story of the Nativity We will also be reading 'Mog's Christmas Calamity' by Judith Kerr.

Maths

We are looking at the numbers one to five during the last few weeks of nursery.

The children will be going on a number hunt around the nursery, looking for five Santas!

Topic

This week the children will be making some lovely Christmas things to bring home!

We will be singing lots of Christmas songs, and retelling the Christmas story.

The children will also be cutting out pictures from toy catalogues and making a list for Father Christmas!

Christmas news!

We are holding a little Christmas celebration on Wednesday 16th December.

We are inviting the children to wear a festive jumper to nursery, as we will be playing some festive games. Please bring in a snack and drink in a named bag, as the children will be having a Christmas snack together!

Messages

We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for all your support over the last term, it's not been easy, but we have all played our part in keeping safe!

Have a wonderful Christmas, and we look forward to seeing you all in the New Year!
