Wednesday 8 September

Dear Parents/Carers

We are very excited to tell you that on Monday 13 and Tuesday 14 September we have published children's author, Paul Nolan, coming into school to lead an Anglo-Saxon writing workshop with the children.

The sessions will run as follows:

Year 6 – Monday 13 September

Year 5 – Tuesday 14 September

The purpose of this visit is to celebrate our topic for this term: 'Why did people invade and settle in Britain?'. The workshop will provide children with the opportunity to learn more about the Anglo-Saxons, key events in their history and engage in writing tasks with a published author.

Requested contribution

The workshop will be an interactive experience, so to support us in providing this, we kindly ask for a contribution of £2 per pupil. For ease, this can be provided as cash and your child can give this directly to the class teacher.

Optional Book Signing

Additionally, Paul Nolan will be hosting a book signing at the end of the session on Tuesday for all children in Year 5 and 6 to purchase signed copies of his book if they would like to. Details of the books available, along with prices, can be found in the attached document. If your child would like to purchase a book, please send in the correct money in a named envelope with the names of the books they wish to buy.

Please direct any questions to your child's class teacher.

Kind regards

Mrs Ajewole
